REPORT

OF THE

SCHOOL BOARD TOWN OF MASON.

There has been no change in the management of the schools from last year. The scholars in District No. 4 have been carried to School No. 5; thus saving the expense of one school.

Although several of the school-houses are in poor condition, we have not deemed it best to make any repairs, except what were absolutely necessary, as there was no money raised for that purpose.

School-house No. 5 leaked so badly that we were obliged to ask the town to shingle it, that it might be suitable for school purposes.

The teachers employed the past year, with one exception, have been experienced and the work accomplished has been generally satisfactory.

The school registers show that a great many of the scholars are very irregular in attendance. In the Centre School, during the winter term, with a total of thirty-two scholars the average attendance was only fourteen.

The following roll of honor gives the names of scholars neither absent nor tardy.

SCHOOL NO. 1.

ONE TERM: Abbie F. Barrett, Mabel E. Barrett, Edith Whittaker, Effie McPhee.

TWO TERMS: Julia Elliott. Hattie Elliott. Grace M. Elliott.

SCHOOL NO. 2.

ONE TERM: Jerry McCuddy, Freddie Chambers, Lottie B. Hodgman.

TWO TERMS: Alber R. Maxwell, Roscoe Maxwell, George L. Tarbell, Willie A. Maxwell.

SCHOOL NO. 3.

ONE TERM: Carrie B. Flagg, Charles A. Thomson, Warren Flagg, Elmer A. Barrett, Addie Hill.

TWO TERMS: Lizzie Cheyne, George Cheyne. Willie Cheyne.

THREE TERMS: Annie J. Thomson.

SCHOOL NO. 5.

ONE TERM: Lena McDonald, John McRobbie, George Rhodes.

TWO TERMS: Mary Rhodes, Thomas Rhodes.

THREE TERMS: Fred E. Jackson.

SCHOOL NO. 6.

ONE TERM: Edith L. Robbins, Eunice E. Winship, Emma C. Winship, Mervin E. Hodgman.

TWO TERMS: Bessie A. Barrett, Eva F. Winship, Everett N. Winship, Carrol M. Robbins.

REPORT

OF THE

Agents of the Stearns Common School Bequest.

The Agents sold the Marvell house in Milford the last of May, 1887, and received for the same, fifteen hundred dollars.

Amount in the hands of the Agents Mar. 1st, 1888, twenty-six hundred dollars, of which eleven hundred dollars are deposited in the Nashua Savings Bank and fifteen hundred dollars in the Milford Savings Bank.

The real estate and savings bank deposits have yielded the following income :

Rent of Boynton Farm from Feb. 1, 1887, to Feb. 1, 1888,	$40 00
Amt. of apples sold from Boynton Farm,	39 00
“ “ sale of grass from Adams land,	20 00

to June 1,	50 00

$238 35

Amount paid to Town Treasurer during the year, for the support of schools,	$238 35

The Executor of the will of William Stearns has filed his account in the Probate Office, and it seems probable that the estate will soon be settled, and that the town will receive during the coming year the residue of the legacy.

During the year the Wisconsin Central R. R. Stock and second series Bonds, belonging to the estate, have been exchanged, dollar for dollar, for similar securities of the new Wisconsin Central Company. The exchange seemed a desirable one and your agents, after consulting authorities best fitted to give advice in matters of finance, advised the executor to make the exchange. They also suggested to the executor the desirability of depositing the new bonds in the safest place attainable; and they were accordingly placed in the vaults of the Union Safe Deposit Company of Boston.

Your agents have not thought it for the interest of the town to dispose of any portion of the real estate at the risk of a sacrifice on its true value, taking the view that the income from the portion of the Bequest, interest bearing, will soon be sufficient to generously supply the needs of the schools until such time as the remaining real estate may be disposed of to the best advantage.

They have also thought it best to deposit the sums received for real estate in Savings Banks, until such time as the bulk of the legacy may be made over to the town, when it may be desirable to seek some other investment attended with the least possible risk of loss.

Respectfully submitted,
